House Thefts on Gowri-Ganesha fest

Deputy Commissioner of Police (Crime and Traffic) Dr. Vikram V. Amathe at one of the houses that were burgled in city.

Mysuru, Aug. 27 (MTY&BCT)- House burglars had a field day during Gowri-Ganesha festivals that were celebrated in city two days back. They took advantage of locked houses and decamped with cash and jewellery worth lakhs of rupees. Police said that in all, five houses were burgled in different parts of the city and in one case, thieves ransacked a house in a fit of rage as they did not get anything to steal.

In the first incident, one house in Vijayanagar Second Stage, 7th Main, was burgled by a gang and the house owners had gone out to celebrate the festivals. The house, Number 2422, is located amidst other houses and its front door was forcibly opened using an iron rod.

The house is owned by businessman Venkatesh who hails from Chikkamagaluru. He had gone there with his family on Aug. 23. The incident came to light last evening when the family returned at around 6 pm. They alerted the Vijayanagar Police immediately and a team headed by Inspector P.N. Anil Kumar rushed to the spot along with finger print experts.

The Police found that the thieves had taken away a safe locker that was in the bed room. It contained gold, silver and cash, all worth Rs. 10 lakh. However, the exact estimate is yet to be ascertained as the house owners are in a state of shock.

In another incident in the same locality of Vijayanagar Second Stage, the house of Vivekananda was burgled when the family was away celebrating Gowri-Ganesha festival. The incident came to light when the family returned yesterday. Rs. 1.20 lakh cash and gold ornaments (exact details not known) have been stolen.

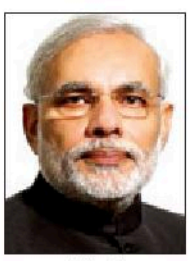
Those who take to violence won't be spared: PM



Modi

New Delhi, Aug. 27- Prime Minister Narendra Modi has asserted in his radio programme 'Mann ki Baat' this morning that any person or group of people "taking the law in their hands will not be spared." He said violence in the name of faith is unacceptable, in comments that come two days after followers of self-styled godman Gurmeet Ram Rahim Singh erupted in violence that left a deadly trail of death and destruction in the small, peaceful town of Panchkula, about 15 km from Chandigarh.

"I want to assure my fellow countrymen that people who take the law into their own hands and are on the path of violent suppression — whether it is a person or a group — neither this country nor any Government will tolerate it."

Scariest House in Belarus !

Minsk: In the town of Ratomka, five kms from the Belorussian capital of Minsk, there is a house so spooky that some people try to avoid walking past it at all costs, especially at night. With skeletal hands coming out of the stone fence, devils decorating the roof and dozens of black skulls covering a domed structure on the property, the scariest house in Belarus is definitely a sight to behold.

Photos of the spooky house went viral in Belarus, with most people praising the owner for the bold artistic design. One of the next-door neighbours of the house also complained that the view was horrible, and the spooky black skulls covering the domed roof of a smaller structure resembles a crypt. Neighbours say that the owner of the house is actually just an ordinary businessman. He started building the house a decade ago, but then went away for eight years and resumed work on it. Now it's almost finished, and people are scared he might add even more spooky elements to it before he's done.

'Animal Ark'

Gadchiroli: The Animal Ark is a special wild animal sanctuary, in Maharashtra, India, that takes in orphaned animals whose parents get hunted by villagers for food. It was set up by a local doctor who understood the necessity of hunting, but couldn't bare to let the young animals starve to death.

One day, during the early 70s, Dr. Prakash Amte and his wife were taking a walk in the Dandarayana forest of Gadchiroli, when they encountered a group of tribal people carrying a dead monkey that they had hunted. They noticed that there was a baby monkey clinging to its dead mother's body and trying to suckle her breast. It was heartbreaking sight, and Dr. Prakash decided he couldn't let the hunters kill the baby as well. He knew the tribe killed out of necessity, not for sport, so he offered them rice and clothing in exchange for the baby monkey. They reluctantly accepted, and the small animal became the first member of their big animal family. Today, Animal Ark is home to around 90 animals, and that number is estimated to go down in the next few years, because the Madia tribes hunt less than they used to. But everyone who knows the Amte family, or has heard their story, know that they have helped save hundreds if not thousands of orphaned animals since the 1970s.

My experience as Dasara Special Officer 30 years back

Sir,

After reading the initiative taken by Deputy Commissioner D. Randeep, who is also the Dasara Special Officer and KBG's column on the subject (SOM dated Aug. 19) constituting an Audit and Accounts Committee to monitor and micro-manage Dasara Budget, my memory took me back to 30 years when I was appointed as Dasara Special Officer in 1987.

It was a severe drought situation in the District and a late decision was taken by Ramakrishna Hegde government to conduct the festivities with a Budget of just Rs. 25 lakh.

I was provided necessary staff by the Divisional Commissioner, who was the Chairman of the Executive Committee. The staff particularly included an Accountant-cum-Auditor to check and control budget expenses of various Sub-Committees. He was a very sharp person for the job.

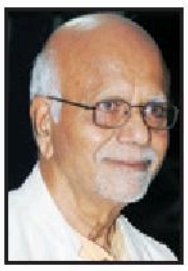
We had taken a decision with the Divisional Commissioner to allot 10 percent less of the budget meant for the various Sub-committees asking the Chairmen to be very austere in spending it besides urging them to make some savings to be returned to the Government.

Our Accountant was going around all the Sub-Committees to keep a watch on the expenditure. And lo! at the end of the Dasara festivities conducted with all its traditional glory, while submitting statement of Accounts to Government, there was a saving of 12 percent from the allotted budget of Rs. 25 lakh.

I cannot take credit for this but for the co-operation extended by various Sub-Committees' Chairmen and Members who spent Government money very judiciously.

Again, the final Auditing of Accounts was done by Accountant General after which they issued Clearance Certificate facilitating to draw my regular salary.

I wish all success to Dasara



Festivities of this year and to the initiative taken by D. Randeep, specially measures taken to control expenditure allotted to various Sub-Committees.

Rivers as waste dumps should end: Expert

Mysuru, Aug. 27- Japan is planning to ban one time use of materials including drinking water bottles to curb wastage, said former Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB) Chairman B. Shivalingaiah.

He was speaking at a conference on 'Industrial Waste Management' organised by Confederation of Indian Industry in association with Department of Industries and Commerce and KSPCB here recently and said, "People are using water as a vehicle to throw their unwanted materials. Due to this rivers including Narmada, Ganga, Krishna and Cauvery, are getting polluted and the life of river is reducing."

CII Chairman, Mysuru, Arjun Ranga said, "If we stick to our current waste management practices, by 2047 India will require land of 1400 km which is equivalent to size of the Delhi. India's urban population is currently at 32.8 per cent that is 440 million and projected to go up to 590 million by 2030."

An estimated 55 million tons of solid waste and approximately 6,000 million cubic meters of liquid waste are generated annually in urban areas of India, which is increasing at the rate 1-1.5 per cent per annum."

He added, "the business potential for e-waste is estimated at about Rs. 700 Crore in the country.

B.M. Prakash, Environmental Officer, KSPCB, Mysuru said, "In 2009, CII along with KSPCB had undertaken some work on waste management in Nanjangud Industrial Area, during that time we have accessed how the waste generated is being utilised and how much is going to landfill. After that no study is undertaken."

According to Prakash, the industries are not showcasing their efforts. Lot of industries have very good technology in the areas of recycling and also zero discharge.

They have these things in their respective website but not available for public.

They should make use of good platform including events like Dasara and industrial events to show the latest developments and initiatives taken in waste management". He also called upon industrialists to give more importance to non hazardous waste.

There were participants from around 55 large-scale industries across the district who took part in the daylong conference.

A. Ramesh, Senior Envronmental Officer, KSPCB and Dr. Sandeep Mudliar, Principal Scientist, CSIR /CFTRI also took part in the conference.

On the occasion over 100 environmental heads of industries from Mysuru and Nanjangud pledged their support on the ongoing Rally for Rivers initiative by ISHA Foundation, according to a press release from CII.

Three-day 3-D projection mapping initiative at Town Hall from Sept. 27

Mysuru, Aug. 27 (BCT)-As a special attraction for tourists, the Mysuru District Administration has decided to launch 3-D projection mapping initiative on Town Hall building in city during Dasara celebrations.

The 133-year-old Town Hall building will be 3D projection-mapped and will showcase the magnificent history of Mysuru and the evolution of Mysuru Dasara through 407 years. Using state-of-the-art technology and graphically-created visuals, the Town Hall will come alive as it tells this incredible story.

The initiative is jointly organised by the Executive Committee, Mysuru Dasara 2017 and the Tourism Department. The show promises to be a story of Mysuru Dasara as never seen or told before in Kannada and English and will be held for three days – September 27, 28, and 29 from 8 pm to 10.30 pm. It may be mentioned here that last year, a private company had organised the show during Dasara and this time, the District Administration has officially taken over the responsibility of such a show.

Projection mapping, also known as video mapping and spatial augmented reality, is a projection technology used to turn objects, often irregularly shaped, into a display surface for video projection. These objects may be complex industrial landscapes, such as buildings, small indoor objects or theatrical stages.

By using specialised software, a two-or-three-dimensional object is spatially mapped on the virtual programme which mimics the real environment it is to be projected on. The software can interact with a projector to fit any desired image onto the surface of that object.

This technique is used by artists and advertisers alike who can add extra dimensions, optical illusions, and notions of movement onto previously static objects. The video is commonly combined with, or triggered by audio to create an audio-visual narrative.

During the ten-minute programme, the grand history of Mysuru will be showcased through audio and video projection. It will be a treat for visitors who are sure to be mesmerised by the display. The projection brings alive a structure through video display just like the Sound and Light programme at Mysuru Palace.

According to sources from the administration, the show will be a platform for the world to witness that pomp and pageantry must be experienced to be celebrated. State-of-the-art projectors, surround sound and next generation lights will be used to weave this magical story and it promises to be an evening where the young and old will come together to revel in the past, experience the present and remember it for the future.

Sources said that the Tourism Department had organised a similar show on Public Utility Building on M.G. Road in Bengaluru as part of the 9th edition of the Bengaluru International Film Festival.

Following its success, the Mysuru District Administration had identified three monuments — Mysuru Palace, Jaganmohan Palace and Town Hall.

The Town Hall was selected as there is already a Sound and Light show at the Palace.

Intl. standard 'Jumboo Savari' planned

Kannada and Culture Minister Umashree is seen chairing a meeting on Dasara at the Deputy Commissioner's office here yesterday as DC D. Randeep, Kannada and Culture Director N.R. Vishukumar, City Police Commissioner Dr. A. Subrahmanyeswara Rao and Food and Civil Supplies Deputy Director Dr. K. Rameshwarappa look on.

Mysuru, Aug. 27 (MTY&NNN)-Kannada and Culture Minister Umashree is very keen to take the Jumboo Savari (Dasara Procession) to international standards by matching it with the Republic Day (RD) parade in New Delhi.

Chairing a meeting on Dasara Sub-Committees at the Deputy Commissioner's office here yesterday morning, she said, "The discipline, dedication, neatness, perfection, all hallmark of the RD Parade is the benchmark this time for the Jumboo Savari. The Sub-Committee members should focus all their energies to match the RD Parade."

In all, there will be 40 tableaux and what needs to be decided is whether one cultural team should follow a tableau or two tableaux should follow a cultural team. "It is also very important that the cultural troupes participating in the procession should all sport the same coloured uniforms to bring about discipline and neatness like in the RD parade in Delhi," said Umashree.

There are already 250 applications received to participate in the procession. The Minister suggested that two rehearsals should be held utilising the services of Janapada Academy and the decision must be taken to hold the rehearsals either inside the Palace premises or in open grounds outside. A final rehearsal must also be held before the final procession on Vijayadashami, she said.

This year only international artistes would be invited to perform in front of the Mysore Palace. "The artistes of international repute hesitate to approach the Government officials as most of them have ended with bad experiences. Hence, it is important to identify those who have not approached us and invite them well in advance," said Umashree.

However, local artistes will be given opportunity to perform and hence 40 per cent of them will be from mofussil area, 30 per cent from the State, 15 per cent national and 15 per cent international artistes, she said.

The Karnataka Nataka Academy has produced 21 plays related to women and children issues. These plays will be staged at the Town Hall, she said.

It's drill time for Dasara cannon firing

A team of Police personnel from the City Armed Reserve (CAR), with the backing of a team of forest personnel, have begun dry practice of cannon firing. The practice began yesterday at the Mysore Palace campus with the Policemen taking out the cannons and began the cleaning and oiling process. Cannons were paraded and the Policemen refreshed their memories on cleaning the cannons, steps to be followed including the assembling of the cannon and security measures that have to be adopted while filling the gun powder and the process of igniting the fire. Once the second batch of the elephants arrives, a date will be fixed for the rehearsals to familiarise them with the booming sound of the cannons. On the day of Vijayadashami, cannons are fired for 21 times outside the Palace Fort to signal the beginning of Jumboo Savari, which marks the Dasara finale. To prevent the jumbos from getting nervous, the rehearsal of cannon gunfire is conducted three to four times in the run-up to the Dasara finale every year.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Queries relating to GST received from various sectors have been scrutinised and developed into short FAQs.

The fourth part, containing 50 questions and their answers, is given below.

COMPOSITION

Q.1 Whether a person can avail the composition scheme on Small Retail Trading of goods if he is holding both incomes like Sale of business: Rs. 25 lakh (Small Retail Trader) and Rental income: Rs. 12 lakh, whereas the person was registered earlier in VAT Composition Scheme and was paying Service Tax on rental income?

Ans Renting is a service and supplier of service, except restaurant service, cannot opt for composition scheme. Since you are supplying both goods & services, you are not eligible for composition scheme.

Q. 2 Can traders selling on ecommerce portals avail composition scheme if their turnover is less than Rs. 75 lakh?

Ans No. refer Sub-section (2) of Section 10 of CGST Act, 2017.

EXPORTS

Q.3 Whether every registered person who intends to export requires fresh Bond/LUT even if the same was issued on or before 30.06.2017 and is still live i.e. not one year old.

Ans Circular No. 4/4/2017-GST dated 07.07.2017 clarifies this. Old LUT/bond is valid till 31.07.2017, after which fresh LUT/Bond in the new format is required to be submitted.

Q. 4 Some assessees had multiple central excise registrations under the earlier regime and were having different LUT/ Bond for each premises. In GST, there will be single registration for such assesses. Do they require furnishing fresh Bond/LUT for their principal place of business or the existing Bond/LUT issued to them prior to 30.06.2017 shall be applicable for the export purpose.

Ans Circular No. 4/4/2017-GST dated 07.07.2017 clarifies this. Old LUT/bond is valid till 31.07.2017, after which fresh LUT/Bond in the new format is required to be submitted.

Q.5 With reference to clause 5 of Rule 96 A of CGST Rules, 2017 as inserted vides Ntf No. 15/2017 – Central Tax dated 01st July 2017 "(5) The Board, by way of notification, may specify the conditions and safeguards under which a Letter of Undertaking may be furnished in place of a bond." It may be clarified as to whether any conditions and safeguard has been notified by the Board as on date, as certain parties have filed LUT for export in this office

Ans Yes, conditions and safeguards have been specified by Notification No. 16/2017-Central Tax dated 07.07.2017 and clarified in detail in Circular No. 4/4/2017-GST dated 07.07.2017. The sum and substance of these documents is that the facility of Letter of Undertaking in place of a bond is available to a registered person who is either (a) a status holder as specified in the Foreign Trade Policy 2015-2020; or (b) who has received the due foreign inward remittances amounting to a minimum of 10% of the export turnover, which should not be less than one crore rupees, in the preceding financial year. The person should not have been prosecuted for any offence under the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (12 of 2017) or under any of the existing laws in a case where the amount of tax evaded exceeds two hundred and fifty lakh rupees.

Q.6 In case of export of services, who will pay the service tax as for Bhutan, Nepal and Bangladesh?

Ans The place of supply is outside India but as the supplier is located in India, it is a case of inter-State supply and subject to IGST. It will be zero rated if the sale proceeds are realized in convertible foreign exchange.

Q.7 Will GST be debited in duty credit scrips such as Merchandise Exports from India Scheme (MEIS) and Service Exports from India Scheme (SEIS)?

Ans No.

Q.8 In view of definition of 'export of goods' given in Section 2(5) of the IGST Act, 2017, the supply of goods by the manufacturer to merchant exporter cannot be treated as exports as he is not taking out the goods out of India. He is supplying the goods to the merchant-exporter. Therefore, is the manufacturer required to pay CGST and SGST in all cases of exports by merchant-exporter even though the goods are being sealed in container for export from the premises of manufacturer-exporter? Does the merchant-exporter have the option either to avail option of Bond/LUT or to pay IGST for export of such goods?

Ans Yes. The manufacturer would be liable to pay CGST and SGST. The merchant-exporter has the option either to avail option of Bond/LUT or to pay IGST for export of such goods. There is no provision on the lines of Form H under the CST Act in the GST.

Q.9 As per Rule 96A of CGST Rules, 2017, the LUT is to be accepted by the Jurisdictional Commissioner, Udaipur whereas in pre GST era the same was accepted by the jurisdictional Deputy/Assistant Commissioner Kota. The Commissioner of Kota region has office at Udaipur which is 290 Kilometers away from Kota due to which it is impractical to file LUT at Udaipur with Commissioner as compared to previous procedure.

Ans Circular No. 2/2/2017-GST dated 04.07.2017 has clarified that an exporter wishing to export without payment of integrated tax may approach the jurisdictional AC/DC for acceptance of bond/LUT. Circular No. 4/4/2017-GST dated 07.07.2017 has further clarified that the bond/LUT shall be accepted by the jurisdictional Deputy/Assistant Commissioner having jurisdiction over the principal place of business of the exporter.

Q.10 As per sub-rule 5 of rule 96A of of CGST Rules, 2017, Board will notify where LUT is to be furnished in place of Bond. Since Board has not notified so far, therefore, this office is of the view that Bond is to be furnished in all cases as of now. Please clarify Ans The Board has, vide Notification 16/2017-Central Tax dated 07.072017, specified the conditions and safeguards under which an exporter may file a LUT instead of a bond.

Q.11 Whether in case of assesses exporting goods under LUT in Central Excise Act 1944, can export goods after 01.07.2017 under GST on the basis of the said LUT filed under Central Excise Act, 1944 until that LUT expires.

Ans In terms of Para 6 of Circular No. 4/4/2017 dated 07.07.2017 exports are allowed under existing LUTs/Bonds till 31st July 2017. Exporters shall submit the LUTs/Bond in the revised format latest by 31st July, 2017.

Q.12 There is lack of clarity in the trade regarding the eligibility conditions for the LUT/Bond as per the Notification No. 16/2017-Central Tax. Para i (b) of the said notification requires the exporter to receive the due foreign inward remittances amounting to a minimum 10% of the export turnover, which should not be less than one crore rupees, in the preceding financial year. It is not clear for the exporters having an export turnover of say Rs. 5 Crore. For such people whose 10% of the export turnover is below one crore, what is the implication? Are those exporters who have received their total due inward remittance of e.g. Rs. 5 Crore eligible for availing the facility of LUT?

Ans Condition i(b) in the said Notification means that : the registered person should have received at least 10% of his/her export turnover as foreign inward remittance in the preceding financial year and the foreign inward remittance in the preceding financial year should not be less than one crore rupees. E.g. if a registered person has an export turnover in FY 2016-17 of Rs. 5 crore and has received foreign inward remittance of Rs. 5 crore in the same FY, then he shall satisfy Condition i(b), and shall be eligible for execution of LUT.

INVOICE & RETURNS

Q.13 If an Assessee has two or more units with single registration, how the invoices are to be maintained viz., separate invoices unit wise or single invoice for all units ?

Ans He can issue unit-wise invoice also. But there should not be any duplication in numbering system.

Q. 14 Do we have clarity on when invoice data uploading will begin on the GSTN?

Ans Government is ready to launch this. However, a simpler return called GSTR-3B has also been devised due to the demands from the trade and industry for extension of time limit for filing of normal returns.

Q.15 Would head offices providing centralized HR, Finance and IT functions also need to raise invoices to its branches?

Ans Yes, if the head office and branches are distinct persons as specified in Section 25(4) of CGST Act, 2017 invoice is required to be issued and GST should also be paid.

Q.16 Kindly clarify the accounting treatment of Credit Note while raising Invoice after implementation of GST?

Ans For the purpose of GST law, credit note can be issued to reduce the taxable value or to reduce tax payable or to claim goods return, where the relevant invoice had already been issued and taxable value or tax charged in that tax invoice is in excess. Section 34 of CGST Act, 2017 may be referred to for further details.

Q.17 Whether any trader having turnover of less than Rs. 20 lakh needs to sell his goods on proper invoice/billing?

Ans Only registered persons are required to issue tax invoices as per provision of Section 31 of CGST Act, 2017 read with rules. An unregistered person may supply goods on ordinary commercial invoices and he cannot issue tax invoice.

Q.18 What is the procedure/documents required for sending free replacement to the customers at free of cost?

Ans Where free replacement is provided to the customers without consideration under warranty, no GST is chargeable on such replacement. In such cases goods may be sent on delivery challan as provided in rule 55 of the CGST Rules, 2017.

Q.19 If we are only dealing in exempted items what is the type of invoice we are required to issue to our buyers? Is it bill of supply or regular GST Invoice?

Ans You may issue a commercial invoice in such cases. However, if you are a registered person, you may issue a bill of supply for exempt supplies.

Q. 20 How the invoicing should be done for free goods given along with sale so that corresponding input tax credit is not required to be reversed for products under scheme?

Ans Invoice value would include value of all goods including those supplied free. In such cases, ITC is not required to be reversed.

Q. 21 Under GST, how to send demonstration equipment and instruments to customers or branch offices with in India on returnable basis? – No sale is involved

Ans As the goods are sent on returnable basis and no transfer of title is involved, it is not a supply of goods. If some element of service is involved, the same will be a taxable supply. The goods may be sent on delivery challan without invoice as it is not a supply of goods.

Q.22 How to send equipment and instruments to manufacturers' factory for repairs and calibration with in India on returnable basis? – No sale is involved.

Ans Challan for movement of goods without supply is to be issued in terms of Rule 55 of CGST Rules.

Q. 23 Clarification is sought on the following: Revision in GSTR Returns

Ans Mistakes can be corrected in subsequent returns to be filed through amendment Table (For example Table 11 of GSTR-1). Such mistakes can be corrected till the due date for filing of the return for the month of September subsequent to end of the year or filing of the annual return, whichever is earlier.

INPUT TAX CREDIT

Q.24 How can a trader avail ITC while selling goods/services to unregistered/exempted GST traders?

Ans The fact that a registered person is supplying goods to an unregistered or exempted person has no consequence on availment of ITC by the supplier.

Q. 25 Please clarify the procedure of availing ITC on Additional Compensation Cess on some products like Tobacco, Coke, Cigarettes.

Ans ITC of cess can be used only for payment of cess

Q.26 Please clarify ITC Credit status for the following condition: If Recipient (Good & Service) is registered under GST & Re-seller / Supplier is under exemption or composition schemes

Ans In case of unregistered dealer, recipient will pay tax on reverse charge basis. He can get the ITC provided he fulfills other conditions as mentioned in section 16 of the CGST Act, 2017. In case of purchase from composition taxable person, the composition person cannot charge any tax and hence the question of availing ITC does not arise.

Q.27 Please clarify ITC Credit status for the following condition: On GST Deducted Commission for Distributor registered under GST Taxpayer

Ans Any deductions under TDS/TCS provisions from amount paid or credited to the supplier shall be credited to the electronic cash ledger which can be used for payment of tax.

Q.28 Please clarify ITC Credit status for the following condition: if Commission received Without Deducting GST in cases where distributor under Exemption or composition Scheme

Ans The section concerning GST deduction (Section 51 of CGST Act, 2017) has not been operationalized till now. But if the distributor is under threshold exemption or under composition scheme, the requirement for GST deduction depends upon the taxable supply and value of contract rather than the nature of the supplier.

Q.29 How should importers take credit of clean energy cess paid on goods lying as stock 30.06.2017?

Ans No credit for clean energy cess can be taken.

Q. 30 Since our products are under 0% and we are using various services like telephone, professional charges for which we will be paying GST to our registered service providers and this amount will not be utilized towards any payment of outward goods. Are we eligible for refund on the services obtained and GSTN paid for the same? If yes what is the procedure? If no what is the accounting effect?

Ans You are not eligible for refund of unutilized Input Tax Credit as there is no tax on output supply. Tax paid on such services may be accounted along with the services availed i.e. booked as expenses.

Q. 31 Whether ITC Transition provisions on goods purchased within the State on which tax on MRP has been paid, covered under 140(3) or 140(1)? If covered under 140(1) then how a credit claim be made, as presently in Vat return only the amount is reflected and it is non-adjustable?

Ans Section 140 (1) of CGST Act is applicable for a person who was registered under the existing laws (e.g. under Central Excise, Service Tax, Value Added Tax). And therefore, credit of taxes paid on inputs was getting recorded in the returns filed. Section 140 (3) of CGST Act is applicable for persons who were not liable for registration under existing laws or who were selling/providing non-taxable, exempt goods/services but their supplies are liable to tax under GST. Please also refer to Section 140 of the SGST Act of your respective state and the associated rules.

Q.32 Please clarify on availment of input tax credit of GST paid on trucks, commonly used for G.T.A business, Safex, Multi-modal and packing business?

Ans No ITC is permitted to GTA engaged in providing GTA services which are under RCM and are treated as exempted supplies in the hand of GTA. However, if GTA is also liable to pay tax under forward charge as supplier, he is not permitted to avail ITC if he is claiming the concessional rate of 5%. If ITC is claimed, the GST rate for GTA in forward charge will be 18%.

Q.33 What will be the Input Credit of newly launched project of building construction after 01.07.2017?

Ans ITC is permitted to pay output tax of construction/work contract services. Please see Section 17(5)(c) and (d) of CGST Act, 2017.

Q.34 What are the provisions under CGST Act as to the eligibility of CENVAT credit of service tax on invoices which are received after the appointed date for the services received under the service tax regime?

Ans ITC is available in terms of section 140(5) of CGST Act, 2017.

Q. 35 How a service Provider can get input GST credit benefit in pure labour Contract under Input Credit?

Ans He needs to use input for furtherance of business and should fulfill the conditions mentioned in section 16 of CGST Act, 2017. The input should not fall within the negative list provided in section 17(5) of the CGST Act, 2017.

Q. 36 GSTR-1 (Point 9) – As banks are eligible to claim only 50% of Input credit consider excluding banks from reporting of exempt/ non-GST supplies in GSTR-1?

Ans Return Rules have already been notified. It is not possible to make exception for one sector.

Q. 37 Clarification is sought for the following: Penal Interest on loans and advances

Ans Penal interest is a consideration for tolerating an act and it is a supply of service and will be taxable.

Q. 38 In case of takeover of a Partnership firm by a Private Limited Company, then who will get the ITC credit? And who should file the GST TRAN-1?

Ans If the business is transferred as a going concern, and liabilities are also transferred then ITC can be transferred to the company. The company can file TRAN-1.

JOB WORK

Q. 39 Whether the job worker (who converts barley into Malt) has to charge GST from the Principal only on the Job Work charges or full value of goods, i.e. (Value of Raw Material + Job Work Charges)?

Ans The job worker has to pay GST on job work charges only.

Q. 40 In case of job workers not operating under Notification 214/86-CE (i.e. registered under excise at present), whether they can carry forward the credit availed on RM/PM supplied to them by the principal manufacturer? Also is there any restriction on carry forward of the credit on input services distributed to them by the principal as ISD under Rule 7 of the Credit Rules and remaining unutilized on the day of GST implementation?

Ans The credit on RM/PM supplied by the principal manufacturer can be availed by the manufacturer rather than the job worker. Section 141 of CGST Act, 2017 refers. Further if job worker is registered under existing law, Cenvat Credit in respect of input services received from ISD as shown in return can be carried forward.

LEVY

Q. 41 Should GST be charged on labour charges in an invoice?

Ans Yes, if the activity is taxable.

Q. 42 Would tax be payable on sale of business assets on which no credit was claimed?

Ans Yes provided the aggregate value of supplies is more than Rs. 20 lakh (Rs. 10 lakh in special category States).

Q. 43 What kind of facilities provided by employer to employee would be liable to GST? For instance, whether club membership provided will be considered as "service"?

Ans The compensation to employees in the form of money is not a supply. However, fringe benefits are supply of goods or services and are liable to tax if not exempted. These are transactions in furtherance of business and even if supplied without consideration, the same are deemed supply.

Q. 44 An USA based company provides services to its account holders spread worldwide. Whether services given by it would be covered under Section 13(8) of IGST Act?

Ans If the place of supply is in India, the registered recipient will have to pay tax under reverse charge and if the recipient is unregistered, company will pay GST in accordance with section 14 of IGST Act.

Q. 45 Whether 5% GST applicable to the Transport service provider is to be charged on the total freight amount bill?

Ans It will be on the invoice value of GTA services determined in terms of Section 15

Q. 46 Does Rental Income less than Rs. 20 Lakh per annum attract GST?

Ans No. That said, where the rental income from a single property is less than Rs. 20 lakh but the aggregate rental income from various properties exceed rupees twenty lakh, the requirement for registration and GST payment will be there.

Q.47 In reference to Section 15 of GST, CTT and STT are statutory levy under Income Tax. Is there any GST tax on another governmental Tax, SEBI Fees and Stamp Duty as per Various State Government rates?

Ans As per Section 15 the value will be inclusive of all taxes except CGST, SGST, UTGST and IGST. So all taxes will be included in the value for the purpose of GST except where benefit of Pure agent as provided in Rule 33 of CGST Rules, 2017 is availed.

Q. 48 Provisions of Notification no. 7/2017 Central Tax are applicable under CGST only. Kindly clarify whether provisions of notification no. 7/2017 will be applicable for SGST Act, IGST Act and UTGST Act ?

Ans Separate notifications are issued under SGST Act, IGST Act and UTGST Act.

Q. 49 Whether GST would be payable in case of demand of excise duty made upon finalization of provisional excise assessment in post GST period?

Ans Demands arising from finalization of provisional assessments under the Central Excise Act, unless recovered under the said Act, shall be recovered as an arrear of tax under GST Act.

Q. 50 What option shall be opted while clearing samples from factory to warehouse location:

a) No GST should be levied but corresponding ITC should be reversed

b) GST should be levied but GST (ITC) paid on samples cleared should be reversed at receiving warehouse location.

Ans Depends upon the location of the factory and warehouse. If both are located in the same State and not registered separately, no GST is to be charged. Once finally supplied to any other recipient, no GST is to be charged but ITC on the same is to be reversed.

Homage to Karmayogi Jagadguru

Dr. Sri Shivarathri Rajendra Mahaswamiji

Gowri and Ganesha festivals have been celebrated in many parts of South India with religious fervour and environmentalists have been urging people not to use idols which are decorated by chemical paints. This is a good suggestion and everyone of us should follow this and government may enact a law in this regard. In fact Ganesha festival was used by Tilak and others at Bombay to unite people for attaining Swaraj. Thus Ganesha festival was a uniting force.

In our society temples and mutts have played and are playing even now a great social and religious role and guide us. One such Mutt is Suttur Mutt which is famous not only in India but outside the country too.

This Mutt had a series of holy pontiffs going back to great antiquity and Pattada Sri Shivarathreeshwara Swamiji was prominent among them. Then came Sri Shivarathri Rajendra Mahaswamiji. He was born on 29.8.1916 in Suttur. His father was Mallikarjunaswamy and mother Marammanni. Pattada Shivarathreeshwara Swamiji conveyed his wish that this boy should be allowed to become his disciple and ultimately take over the mantle as Jagadguru of Suttur Srikshetra. The parents felt happy and agreed to dedicate their son to the glory of Suttur Srikshetra.

Early period of Sri Shivarathri Rajendra Swamiji was spent in Suttur Mutt. His primary education took place in Suttur itself. The senior pontif ordained him to monkhood (Sanyasa) and announced that he would be the next (23rd) Jagadguru of Suttur Mutt. He was just twelve years then and this took place in 1928. People felt happy that Suttur Mutt had a worthy successor and the Mutt would develop by leaps and bounds and as we now see, it happened in ample measure.

But when the Swamiji came to Mysuru, he was worried about the plight of the students.Mysuru had become a great centre of higher education and poor students were coming from different parts to Mysuru. But the facility of boarding and lodging was practically inadequate if not nil. Unless the villagers and underprivileged people got education, the society will not improve and the political freedom will have no meaning. Thus he thought that this should be his top agenda. In the meantime he got an opportunity to go to Kashi where Sri Gowrishankara Swamiji was a professor at Kashi Vidyapeetha. Sri Rajendra Swamiji saw the plight of poor students even at Kashi and this strengthened his intention to serve the student community who were in need of all help. He never looked back after this.

He found hundreds of students who had no support and immediately jumped into the fray and started providing boarding to a small number of students. Thus the first prasada nilaya (boarding home) was started. He used to get provisions and vegetables from Suttur but they were not sufficient. Slowly provisions used to come to the hostel because of the respect people had towards the Swamiji. Thus the first students' hostel of Suttur Mutt came into existence. This hostel was open to all castes and communities. Gradually the number of hostels increased and by 1950 three hostels were working in which students from primary school to University were there.

Slowly Suttur hostels came into being at Yelandur, K. R. Nagar, T. Narasipur etc. The food and other amenities were such that people began to say if you want to study, you should become a student of Suttur hostel.

He got another idea and that is starting of more schools and colleges and in 1954 came into existence Sri Shivarathreeshwara Mahavidyapeetha with Sri Rajendra Swamiji as its President. During his lifetime at least one hundred educational institutions were established, which included many types of schools and colleges including technical institutions.

Thus came into existence Sri Jayachamarajendra College of Engineering (SJCE) in Mysuru in 1963. Then came Sri Shivarathreeswara Medical College. In 1970 he had opened a medical centre which later became foundation for the JSS Medical College. Many Polytechnics were also opened. Thus JSS became a brand name and it became really a Maha Vidya Peetha.

Many Ministers and highly placed officials used to come to have darshan of the Swamiji. He used to give them advice to serve the society. However, daily dasoha was continued. He used to take great risk for feeding the students even by taking loan of food items from the merchants. Once there was a problem and there was no money with the Swamiji. He had a gold Karadige and to feed the students he pledged it and took money. Subsequently he paid back the money and got it back.

He was simple in his life style. Once he took part in a programme in a village near Mysuru. After the programme, dinner was arranged in a dalit's house. Thinking that this is the best opportunity to teach these people the ills of caste system he made arrangements for food with dalits. The householder said 'Sir you are an incarnation of Basavanna'. Once a householder of lower caste invited the Swamiji for the marriage of his daughter and thought that the Swamiji would not attend it. But on the day of the marriage, Swamiji attended it and showed that caste and community should not become a barrier for a purposeful living.

The fame of the Swamiji spread far and wide and many dignitaries called on him to get blessings. This list includes President Babu Rajendra Prasad, Dr. S. Radhakrishnan and many others.

Many devotees felt that the Swamiji should visit England and America, mainly with the hidden idea of a good health checkup. Swamiji did not agree in the beginning and ultimately agreed because it would help to unite the followers of the Swamiji to do more social service. He went there and saw many parts of America and inaugurated the ninth convention of the Veerashaiva Samaja which consisted of Veerashaivas who had settled in America. A medical checkup of Swamiji was done and it revealed that his condition was not satisfactory. Going to Chicago was cancelled and when he got back to the Mutt he was exhausted but the mind was highly receptive. But he knew that God wanted him to get relieved from the daily mundane life. He had assigned many aspects of the management to his would-be successor Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji, the present Pontiff of the Mutt.

Doctors were advising Sri Shivarathri Rajendra Mahaswamiji to take good rest but he ignored it. He did many more useful things like organising Akhila Bharata Sharana Sahitya Parishat, etc. But his health was not satisfactory. In the year 1986 the Jagadguru became one with Linga (Lingaikya). The news of his demise spread like wildfire and thousands of people came there to pay last respects to the departed soul. The procession of the departed Swamiji was taken around in Mysuru and it reached Kadumatha and his Samadhi was arranged next to that of Mantra Maharshi Swamiji.

A great era ended with the Mahasamadhi of this savant. He is no longer there with us now but the works and services he did, the institutions he built eloquently testify to the greatness of a great savant. I and my family are beholden to this Jagadguru for many benefaction he has showered on our family for which we are grateful to him. Placing His Holiness Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Mahaswamiji as the Jagadguru is his final contribution to the Suttur Mutt. This Jagadguru is following in the steps of his Guru and taking the Suttur Mutt and many educational institutions to greater heights. JSS has become a household name everywhere in the country and abroad. A worthy disciple to a worthy Guru and that is the tradition of Suttur Mutt.

There are many biographies of this Swamiji written by scholars who were close to him and knew him well, such as Dr. Thipperudraswamy, Dr. Chandrasekaraiah and others. They are worth reading. However, I have followed the booklet by Dr. Chandrasekaraiah which is at once illuminating and instructive. I am beholden to him.

I may end this article with a personal incident. My father, now late Viswanatha Sastry, was a part-time Sanskrit teacher at Kyathanahalli Pathashala. I used to go and meet my father for some errand there. His Holiness, Jagadguru Shivarathri Rajendra Mahaswamiji used to meet all persons and they were all prostrating before the Swamiji. In all innocence I asked the Swamiji, 'Are you a God as people prostrate before you.' He smiled and said, 'Yes, everybody is God including you and me. You will not understand it now. Later in your life you will understand this.' I smiled and came away. Kyathanahalli Swamiji who heard this told my father and I had to face his wrath.

I now join thousands of devotees in paying homage to Jagadguru Sri Shivarathri Rajendra Mahaswamiji on his 102nd birth anniversary on 29.8.2017.

Kodagu residents raise voice against destructive projects

Ponnampet, Aug.27- A massive rally was held yesterday in Kutta, the border area of Kodagu against the proposed railway lines and National Highways that will spell doom for the already ecologically fragile district.

Thousands of people and volunteers from over 30 organisations and NGOs participated in the "Save Kodagu, Save River Cauvery" campaign where speakers denounced the growing ecological destruction of Kodagu, which is also the catchment area for River Cauvery.

The protesters were up in arms against new projects such as three railway lines that will link Kodagu or cut across the district, besides National Highways (see map). The rapid urbanisation of the region, besides indiscriminate tree felling under the guise of "development" has reduced the green cover of the district over the years, according to activists.

Activists say that the Mysuru-Kushalnagar railway line, rail link between Mysuru and Thalassery in Kerala will spell doom for the district as the line will pass through dense forests and elephant habitat.

Addressing the gathering, Col. C.P. Muthanna (retd.) of Coorg Wildlife Society said such projects would only escalate human-animal conflict in Kodagu as these so-called development works would lead to habitat fragmentation, disturbance and destruction.

Convenor of United Kodava Organisation Kokkalemada Manju Chinnappa said, "With the extinction of green cover, the weather pattern of the region will also be altered hampering the rainy season. The district that has never witnessed a drought in the past will be slowly reduced to nothing, as parched days have already started."

The campaign also highlighted the depleting rainfall in the region since the last few years which has affected local agriculture. Kodagu is the catchment area for Cauvery and hence forest cover had to be protected and if the river and its ecosystem were not saved, then nothing would survive, they said.
